1959 / 1975 National Service/Civil Service.

Specialist in Security logistics and communications

Assisted in organising overseas travel arrangements for members of Her Majesties Government and Senior Military personnel.

Co-ordinated planning between Police and The Services for the movement of essential personnel and officials to safe areas at times of emergency.

Travelled on behalf of H.M.G. to most countries in the world but specialising in Europe Middle East. And Africa (EMEA)

My work during this time was under the Official Secrets Act.

1975 / 1993 Acted as a consultant to a number of companies who wished to enter either the UK or European or African markets with specialised security/ law enforcement and military products which did not fit, into their existing core business, and did also not fit the profile of selling through their existing sales force. These companies were Deloitte & Touché Technologies (South Africa). KODAK (U.S.A). KABA (Switzerland). Sandia (U.S.A.). Symbol Technologies. (U.K.)

1993/ 2003 XLTech Group. Employed for Business Development for a range of products that they developed within the companies they created,. XL Vision might be described as "An Incubator Company" with certain differences! I was seconded to the separate companies that they created in order to develop relationships, and channels to market, for sales and partnerships, and also to assist in raising funds - - Axxess Inc. Croma Vision Medical Systems Inc... Ethentica Inc... EVS Enhanced Vision Systems. . EMerge Interactive Inc... Labnetics. . Lasertechnics.. Presideo Inc. Quantrad Corporation. .Who Vision? And XL Vision..

2003/ 2006 Consultant to IDX (Informatics health system – taken over by GE) to organise meetings with senior executives in Europe and to build relationships, working with such firms as Logica CMG. BT. Cap Gemini. De LA Rue. EADS. HP. IBM. KPMG. .Lloyd's of London. . PWC. UBS together with communicating with The NHS and European ministries, and in particular organising the funds that are needed in the projects. Plus worked in South Africa with CIEX

2006/... Created a loose group of consultants to work with some US firms to get their new technologies into the markets in Europe and the Middle East, and looking to create partnerships for finance and joint ventures, principally in establishing manufacturing for them in the E.U. and creating channels to markets.

I have recently, with others, created Coolsight Global Ltd. selling pcm products

I am a founder of Advanced Bioreactor LLC with Initio Fuels Florida using a new one step technology to produce ASTM spec bio-diesel from waste High Free Fatty Acid sludge

Currently I am working in, London, Paris, Brussels and Amsterdam.

I live in Marseille. South of France.
